1103(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Local Rule 2014-1(e) authorizing the retention and employment of Continental PLLC (“Continental”), effective as of February 14, 2022, as conflicts counsel and special litigation counsel to the Committee; and upon the Arrastia Declaration and the Committee Declaration in support thereof; the Court hereby FINDS AND DETERMINES that (i) the Court has jurisdiction to consider the Application and the relief requested therein pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a); (ii) venue is proper before this Court pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a); (iii) due and proper notice of the Application has been provided under the particular circumstances and no other or further notice need be provided; (iv) based on the representations made in the Application and the Arrastia Declaration, Continental represents no interest that is adverse to the Committee with respect to the matters on which the firm is to be engaged; that the firm is a disinterested person as that term is defined under section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code made applicable pursuant to section 301(a) of PROMESA; and that the firm’s employment is necessary and in the best interests of the Committee and its members; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby ORDERED THAT:

1. The Application is granted and approved.
2. In accordance with section 1103(a) of the Bankruptcy Code made applicable to the Title III Cases pursuant to section 301(a) of PROMESA, the Committee is authorized to employ and retain Continental as its attorneys on the terms set forth in the Application, the Arrastia Declaration, and the Committee Declaration, effective as of February 14, 2022. Continental will charge its regular hourly rates in effect from time to time; as such rates may be increased periodically, annually or otherwise; provided, however, that Continental has agreed to reduce its regular hourly rates by 20%.

3. Continental and the Attorneys shall be substituted in the place and instead of the GJB Firm, as special litigation and conflicts counsel.

4. Continental shall be entitled to allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses, upon the filing and approval of interim and final applications pursuant to sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA, the applicable Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules of this Court, and such orders as the Court may direct. Pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, made applicable by section 301(a) of PROMESA, the fees and expenses of Continental under this Order shall be an administrative expense.

5. The Commonwealth (and other title III debtor(s) (if any) for which the Committee acts as the official committee of unsecured creditors) shall be responsible for such compensation and reimbursement of expenses and have consented to pay Continental's fees and expenses within ten days of allowance by the Court or as provided in any interim compensation order, and any such payments shall be made net of any withholding or other applicable taxes. To the extent section 305 of PROMESA applies, the Oversight Board has consented to the Commonwealth's (and the other Title III Debtors for which the Committee acts as the official committee of unsecured creditors) payment as provided in this Order. The retention of Continental, as counsel to the Committee, shall be deemed to apply to the representation of the Committee if ever enlarged to include unsecured creditors of other debtors, without the need to obtain a modification of this Order.

6. Continental shall indicate in its periodic fee statements whether there has been any increase in the rates set forth in the Application. Under no circumstances shall the Committee members be responsible for payment of Continental's fees and expenses.

7. The Committee and Continental are authorized and empowered to take all necessary actions to implement the relief granted in this Order.

8. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to this Order or Continental's services for the Committee.

9. The terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

10. This Order resolves Docket Entry No. 20222 in Case No. 17-3283.
